SG50 – Singapore Marks its Golden Anniversary

Singapore will be celebrating its golden jubilee on August 9th. For a tiny nation that has no natural resources and forced to declare independence, the island city has come a long way and become enormously successful. Made up of racially diverse population, Singapore has very little crime and virtually no corruption. It is a global hub for trade and services, constantly vying with Hong Kong to be at the top position in the Index of Economic Freedom. Singaporeans enjoy world-class healthcare, education and housing infrastructure supported by a highly efficient civil service.

In the spirit of giving back to the community, Helvetic will on this special occasion contribute to organizations that have done good work in and outside Singapore, mentioned in our social responsibility link:
